H. H. BLACK,
DENTIST,
(Late from the Cincinnati College of Dentistry)
Office and Laboratory, No. 10, Alder street, Four Doors from Front, Portland, Ogn.

HAVING secured the services of Dr. C. H. MACK, formerly of New York city, and late of St. Louis, who is an experienced and skillful Dentist, I am now prepared to manufacture and insert Artificial Teeth by the following methods, namely: Gold, Silver, Rubber, Amber, Porcelain Base, Gum Enamel, Rubber Attachment, Cheolite, Continuous Gum, Mica and Enameled Plate Work. Some kinds of this work is recommended above all others, and needs but an inspection to prove its superiority for cleanliness, durability and life-like appearance to any artificial teeth in use.

Filling and cleaning teeth, and all operations in Dental Surgery, either mechanical, operative or surgical, performed in the most thorough and highly finished manner. None but the most permanent and finished operations performed, and no inducements to patients by low priced or roughly finished operations. I use no cement in filling teeth, and seek in price to make no competition with cheap Dentists; and desire the patronage of such persons only as wish their operations performed in the most perfect and skillful manner.

Operations that fail to give satisfaction need not be taken or paid for. Office hours from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. Indigent persons who are unable to pay full professional charges will call before and after office hours. nov4:tf

Spanish American News.

Panama dates are to the 9th instant, from which we glean the following:

It is said, as a positive fact, that the Ecuadorian Government have entered into negotiations with the disaffected authorities of Pasto, for the incorporation of that Province and Tuqueres with Ecuador, in a permanent manner, fixing the limits between that Republic and the United States of Colombia at Juanambu. There is another version respecting Pasto. It is said in Guyaquil, that Canal and his pliant followers had delivered themselves to the Government of Colombia, on the condition that war be made on Ecuador. Whatever may be the case, it is certain that Gen. Flores has departed from the coast for the interior of that Republic, to place himself on the frontier with a force of nearly 4,000 men.

Valparaiso, Chili, dates are to the 17th ult. From the Mercurio we extract the following items:

The extraordinary Sessions of Congress were terminated with the approbation of the Government's project for emitting bonds to the amount of $1,000,000. This measure has been resorted to, to enable the Government to meet its obligations nearly due, without interfering with the public works now in progress. The total amount required by the Government is $873,000.

The projected Submarine Telegraph between Chile and Europe, of which much has been said, has not been determined on by Congress. The Mercurio says: "The Legislature closed its period and nothing has been resolved, nor taken into consideration on this important project."

The fact of a polite reception of the Commander of the Chilean war steamer Maipu by the Governor of Cobija, has given rise to the conjecture that the Mejillones guano dispute will be decided amicably.

News from Buenos Ayres and Paraguay is to the 27th of October:

In Buenos Ayres great tranquility continued, and great reliance is placed in the new administration. At La Roja the resignation of the Governor, Don Domingo A. Villafane, has been accepted, and Col. Jose Joaquin Bultur appointed, until the elections take place.

In Paraguay we find that the Seminario is almost exclusively devoted to the fetes and ovations of which the new President has been the recipient. Congress had voted thanks, official honors and a marble mausoleum in memory of the late deceased President, and had conferred the grade of General of Division on the present incumbent.

The news from the Central American States may be briefly summed up: On the 19th ult. several severe shocks of earthquake thrilled all along the volcanic range through Guatemala and San Salvador. At the city of San Salvador only two houses were demolished, but in some parts of Guatemala the town has suffered considerable damage.

That Silver Horn.—The San Francisco Bulletin's Portland correspondent thus describes the presentation of the silver trumpet to Mr. Hallock of this city:

Being in a manner without military idols in this peaceful region, we are deprived of that commerce in flattery, commonly called "Sword presentations." Not but that we would present a sword to Gen. Somebody, if we had a chance, and see our names in print. "Our own"—the Oregon Cavalry—has been crowded off out of sight upon the frontier, to watch the illicit intercourse between the red and white races; and of course being out of sight and action are forgotten. We ought to have seized upon Hooker, who of right belongs to us, but you Californians, with your characteristic promptitude on such occasions, were too quick for us. Thought is slower here than in your electric latitude. So we must content ourselves with the next best thing after a soldier and a sword, and that is a fireman and a trumpet. Multnomah, No. 2, have a favorite foreman of five years standing, who loves his merchine as ardently as when he put his youthful arm around her brake. The other evening, the boys and sundry invited guests met at the engine-house to present him with a silver trumpet. It was a gorgeous horn. A fellow-fireman delivered it with a neat-turned and well-put speech of not many minute's duration. Halleck, the foreman, accepted it thankfully in a few words, for although it is said that he is given to loquacity in the Common Council, somehow his fluency forsook him upon this occasion, and he was fain to respond more in a brimmer than a speech. It was a pleasant affair—soon found its way into print, and in a small way glorified us as much as any sword presentation of the season.

Imperial Extravagance.—The Empress of France is probably the most extravagant woman living. Nor is this all: she has been the cause of ruinous extravagance in the families of her husband's subjects, and in all countries where the costly fashions she has set have found favor. M. Fould, the Emperor's Minister of Finance, threatens to resign his office unless her enormous drafts upon the treasury are curtailed. So costly has she made the toilette in Paris, that fashionable [illegible] are utterly unable to settle their bills [illegible] ed them and it is stated by the English to the fair Eugenie much as many of them can its civilized population the large debts manner of means grateful [illegible] has caus[illegible] troduction of the article. She has [illegible] apartments in the Tuileries as magnificent as the palaces one reads about in Oriental fables. The doors of her boudoir are of ivory, inlaid with gold. The furniture is of rosewood, inlaid with mirrors, gold, ivory, and pearl, and is upholstered with pale-red silk. Smyrna carpeting of the heaviest texture covers the floor, and the ceiling is splendidly frescoed. The desks and portfolios are of tortoise-shell, arabesqued with gold, and the most valuable paintings of the old masters ornament the walls. The beautiful woman who has surrounded herself with these luxuries spends an almost fabulous amount annually in rare laces and all the most expensive articles of female costume, besides subscribing unheard of sums in aid of certain vast political schemes, for she is withal an intriguing politician.

Improvements at Oregon City

The disastrous flood of last winter inflicted on Oregon City a loss of $75,000, at least The mills which derived their water power from Willamette Falls, were hurled from their foundations, and to day the places where tens of thousands of dollars worth of property stood, shows no sign that human industry had ever busied itself in the improvement of the advantages of the position The sites of Harvey's Mills and the Island Mills are covered with drift timber and the last vestige of those valuable improvements is swept from sight. But the advantages of the incalculable water-power of the Willamette Falls yet remain The volume of this majestic stream is precipitated down a precipice of thirty five feet in height with navigable waters below and above, and claims the tribute of changing raw materials into manufactured articles for the Willamette Valley The destruction of the Linn City works in the winter of 1860–61 was a serious detriment to the passage of the portage at the Falls An attempt was made to rebuild those works but the floods of last winter demonstrated the futility of this means of passing freight over the portage The commerce of the river did not justify the building of a canal, and some enterprising gentlemen determined to build a

RAILROAD AROUND THE WILLAMETTE FALLS

This work is on the Oregon City side of the river. The enterprise was carried into effect by the Corporation known as the "Oregon City Railroad Company" The stockholders are Messrs W C Dement, J D Dement, A L Lovejoy and D P Thompson The company own the ground on the Linn City side of the river, and all that portion of the land over which their track runs, but the land dedicated to public streets and highways, It includes a portion of the valuable water power on the Oregon City side, and certain lands which it is needless to specify The value of the property is estimated at $40,000 The railroad track extends from the lower steamboat landing at Oregon City to the steamboat landing at Canemah, a distance of one mile and six rods, The track is four feet one inch wide, and has a warehouse at the upper end and a warehouse and wharf boat at the lower end The lower warehouse is thirty by sixty feet, and one story high The wharf boat is forty by twenty four feet The upper warehouse consists of two wings, each two stories high, and twenty six by fifty feet, connected by a one-story building, one hundred and fifty two feet long, and thirty feet wide There are conveniences at those warehouses for handling heavy freight which it is not necessary to describe. The railroad track is laid with eight inch square fir timbers and strapped with iron On this track, a single mule can haul from eight to fifteen tons of measurement About two hundred tons a day can be passed over this road, with present facilities, but if it should be needed, additional rolling stock and a locomotive will be placed on it

HARVEY'S NEW MILL

Mr Daniel Harvey has erected a mill forty six by fifty six feet, to take the place of the mill which was swept away last Winter This structure is five stories high, and will contain six run of stone Its entire machinery is got up for the purpose of making it a standard mill, second to none on the coast. In addition to having superior bolting apparatus, of the most approved style, there are all the necessary arrangements for cleaning wheat of smut and "blue-pod" Persons acquainted with the "blue pod" nuisance will estimate the value of an invention which will do away with it The entire cost of the mill is about $50,000, and it will be in running order by the first day of April The building is above the high water of last Winter, and the machinery will be driven by the exhaustless waters of the Willamette, which are ever available.

THE BARREL FACTORY

A barrel factory is to be erected, and the machinery is now on the ground to be used in it. By the use of this machinery, the projector calculates on making barrels [illegible] and cents each The materials [illegible] neighborhood hoops exist in abundance, cedar, ash and oak, For the [illegible] the maple and hazel These will be used for flour designed for export The mining trade will be supplied with flour in sacks, as heretofore

APPLES IN SAN FRANCISCO —The reports from the sale of the last shipment of apples, by the Pacific and Sierra Nevada to San Francisco are unfavorable The cargo of the first ship was partly of inferior quality and went for $1 25 a box for the lowest and the best lot went for 4c The other ship's cargo was in better order, and the inferior lots brought $1 50@$2 a box and the choice lots at 4 and 4½c The rush of apples into the market has flattened out prices, and they are likely to remain so Our information in regard to these sales is from Knapp Burrell & Co's San Francisco house

[illegible] Mexico [illegible] On [illegible] N Y [illegible] says

He [illegible] that the French army still remains below the cumbres of Aculzing The generalship which brought up the French army to the defeat at Puebla and the military administration which permitted the whole summer to pass away without making the slightest provision for the winter campaign [illegible] affords [illegible] astute [illegible] for [illegible] everything had [illegible] astute General saw at a glance [illegible] —mules were wanted horses were wanted wagons were wanted—in fact everything for a European army was short Orders have been sent to all parts—New York Havana New Orleans everywhere—for means of transport and pending their arrival [illegible] the army is very much encumbered [illegible] all events a simultaneous movement on the highlands is impossible

The accounts from the interior [illegible] which however are derived [illegible] the respect of the Mexicans [illegible] Dr B [illegible] Juarez [illegible] for defense [illegible] but tremendous intrenchments are being made which will require Herculean efforts to [illegible] down The enthusiasm of the public is not so great as the journals of the Capital would lead even those accustomed to read Mexican bombast to believe The voluntary system of forcing everybody to work or pay, and some even to do both, gives not the entire satisfaction of the patriotic chieftains It is one part of the volunteer system in vogue at Puebla and at the Capital to make the victims of this system hurrah for Juarez and cry Death to the French invaders

Juarez has come out with a new decree ordering all grain growers to deposit their produce within the walls of either Puebla or Mexico before the 6th of next month Before that time they have the privilege of doing so voluntarily but after that date all those who have not complied with the order will be liable to have their produce burned or confiscated This decree will cause the ruin of many farmers and result in the fortunes of several of the leading chieftains of the Juarez party It is absurd to suppose that all of the grain will be destroyed, but enough will be burned to cover appearances and raise the price of the article—just as here at present

We hear that all the small populations near Jalapa have hailed with joy the arrival of the French troops They had been ground to the earth, and the last degree of poverty by the exactions and cruelties of the Mexican forces who have lately fled They now find [illegible] for their products and security for them [illegible] two things denied them for a long time

General Forey has determined upon organizing things as he goes along Here he has uprooted everything and established a new administration which gives great satisfaction to property owners and of course disgusts the class of people who have been accustomed to live off the loose system which has hitherto prevailed

The railroad enterprise has received the attention of the General in Chief and he has taken a step in regard to it which is likely to secure the success of the work within a brief period The Emperor has sent out a staff of engineers who know nothing of Mexico and but little of railroad building in America They first sent to the United States for laborers and contractors to build the road but it appears that their knowledge of the country did not enable them to succeed They have already spent a month in Mexico without accomplishing anything and Gen Forey has ordered that the old Mexican Company be entrusted with the carrying forward of the work Mr Lyons, the Engineer in Chief of the Mexican Company, is to have what money he wants from the French army chest, and the work is to be pushed on with all possible speed Orders go down to day to have affairs arranged as I describe, and it is now certain—if labor can be found in the United States or Europe—that the railroad from Vera Cruz to the highlands will be concluded in from six to eight months This does not look like a mere temporary occupation of Mexico

THE PRICE OF GOLD —Thompson's Bank Note Reporter, after expressing the opinion that there is more gold now in the country by $30 000,000 than before the civil war broke out says

It is not our province to attempt to account for the daily varying speculations in gold upon any other than material or sound financial causes, such as we have attempted to point out as practically against the high premium Nor do we desire to arraign the movement itself, believing that it will ultimately find its proper level The ground of confi[illegible] our national circulation as in our material resources and ability for the conduct of the war may be shaken, as it has on several occasions been shaken, by reverses in the field but it is also remembered that only eight months ago it was equally elated by our successes in the field, so that gold commanded only two or three, or at most five, per cent premium —Should the tide of fortune in our present winter campaign turn as suddenly in favor of the Government, the effect will be such on the price of gold that no combination of speculators, however wealthy, whether of native or alien birth and sympathies, will be able to resist the fall.

DELICATE REPARTEE —The San Francisco Call of the 27th contains the following, in relation to a scene which occurred in Court upon the prosecution of the publisher of an infamous paper

"In the Police Court a few days [illegible] one of our most promising young [illegible] skedaddle he fending the publisher [illegible] zeal for his client was exerting [illegible] interrupted by the Judge, who [illegible] you were the father of a family of [illegible] up daughters, could you go home with a clear conscience after making such a plea? The reply was instantaneous Judge, if I was the father of a family I would go home as a father not as a lawyer"

RESISTING ASSESSMENT —We understand says the State Republican, that some of the irrepressible Long Tomers refused to be assessed when Deputy Assessor Cranston called on them a few days ago, saying that they did not respect Abe Lincoln nor his laws then they probably will respect his laws when they have to pay a heavy fine and have their property confiscated

BUSINESS AT THE COLUMBIA RIVER —At Dalles mercantile business is very dull with but small indications of improvement until the Spring rush to the mines commences At Walla Walla the Boise demand has kept things lively during the Winter Heavy stocks are held at Lewiston in anticipation of the Spring trade which is likely to be very lively at that place

News from the British Possessions and the North-West

We have [illegible] Victoria papers to the 29th [illegible] from which we make up the following summary of news

A miner from Williams Creek on Christmas day reports [illegible] and a half of snow on the banks of the creek and weather very mild The Creek was [illegible] and contained very little [illegible] Four companies of miners were at work tunneling and drifting with unprecedented success Black Jack [illegible] its reputation [illegible]

On [illegible] Creek Lowrie and other [illegible] nothing was [illegible] There was no small pox in any of the Cariboo creeks One man [illegible] name unknown was dangerously ill of consumption on Williams [illegible]

There is but little snow [illegible] from William Creek [illegible] except on Bald Mountain Sleighing over the mountain trail [illegible] At Beaver lake the [illegible] are all wintering [illegible] On the Swamp they are doing very well

The Frazer is open from Big Bar to its mouth A little ice is seen above [illegible] but not in sufficient quantities to impede navigation

A letter received by Mr P C Dunlevy of Beaver lake who is Wintering in Victoria from James Sellers at Beaver lake says The claims that are at work (on Williams) are paying immense Black Jack claim is worth one hundred thousand dollars to the share and I believe that it will pay it The Cariboo claim is supposed to be just as good. I got a letter from James May the other day He says that they have taken out more money than he can carry since Van Dolen and party left

Times are dull at Victoria, and money scarce Receipts from the mines are next to nothing and until Spring has fairly opened but little improvement is expected

The small pox is still raging at Victoria, and threatens the most dreadful consequences Persons infected are kept outside of the city limits.

The Chronicle of the 27th of January contains the following from the northwest "The schooner Ino Capt Spang arrived from the northwest coast of British Columbia on Sunday evening She brings no later news James Collins, who was on his way down in the Ino from Stickeen River, died on the 20th of December and was buried at Bella Bella Deceased's complaint was erysipelas, He was aged 41 years, came from the State of Massachusetts, U S of A, and had resided in Victoria up to last spring since 1858 Most of our readers will remember him as a tinsmith in the employ of Chief Engineer Dick [illegible] Johnson street"

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are a source of PULMONARY BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease recourse should at once be had to Brown's Bronchial Troches or Lozenges let the Cold Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off Public Speakers and Singers will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. Storage.—THE FIRE-PROOF STONE WAREHOUSE, opposite Umatilla House is the only building not made of wood, at the Dalles where goods are taken on STORAGE All other houses that take goods on storage are wooden buildings and in exposed parts of the town, liable to the risk of fire The subscriber assures his patrons that his charges are but $1.50 per ton per month storage and although storage in wooden buildings is $1 00 per ton yet the public cannot fail to perceive the advantages the subscriber possesses over other warehouses of this place

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

Legal Tender Notes this Day—65 cents.

CAME OUT LOSER.—A resident of the rural districts visited this city on Saturday, and forthwith went on a spree. Having got into a condition which exalted his ideas of his own shrewdness, he forthwith proceeded to fight the "tiger." As generally happens in such cases, he got badly worsted, even to the extent of losing all his ready money. He then endeavored to make a raise by pawning his watch, but about that time a friend put a stop to his sporting career, and to prevent further harm to him, confined him in the city jail. He went like an unwilling school boy to the lock up, offering at each step to treat to the whiskey for all hands. This tempting offer did not produce the desired effect.

ANY QUANTITY OF DRUNKS.—Henry McLaughlin was drunk and disorderly at the corner of First and Alder streets, on Monday night, in seating himself on the pavement and stretching his legs out across the pathway of wayfarers. He was found in this condition, courting the embraces of Somnus, taken to jail and yesterday was brought before the Recorder and fined $10 and costs, which he did not pay and was remanded four days to jail. Joseph Simon was fined $15, which he paid, and costs, for being drunk and disorderly in a violent manner. Duncan Clark was fined $5 for being drunk, and in default of payment was sent three days to the city jail. Edward Barnes was violent, disorderly, and was fined $5, not having the money he was sent three days to jail. Dutch Fred and Dutch Joe went rearin and charging on horseback through the steets, on Sunday afternoon, for which they were charged $5 apiece, and costs, which they paid. Indian John being drunk was committed to jail for two days. An interesting assortment of drunks is still in confinement.

THE CASE AGAINST THE CITY.—We have been desired to correct a misapprehension which has arisen in regard to the suit of Marshal Grooms against the City for $57, on which he recovered $6. It appears that there was no ordinance, or authority in the Charter, to render judgement for his services in serving special notices, and he was not allowed for attendance on those nights on which there was no quorum of the Council. These claims being disallowed, the judgement was as above stated. There is no question about the service being rendered.

HALF CUTS.—Our morning cotemporary says that the publisher of this paper is a "quarter-cent man." The unanimous opinion of the community is that, the writer of that assertion is a man of half-sense, and one who is over sense-itive when the word "rat" is pronounced in his hearing. This particularly long-tailed "rat" speaks of H. L. P. being a "tight" little fellow. It can never be said with truth that he became "tight" on whisky crammed for flattering notices of drinking houses.

FOR THE MINES.—For some days back men have been arriving from the valley in considerable numbers, whose destination is our Eastern gold fields. Most of them possess horses, and intend to make the trip to the Dalles by water, and from thence to the mines on horseback.

THE TELEGRAPH.—The telegraph to Yreka is again in operation, and we have received verbal dispatches to even date with the steamer news. Later news may be expected after to-day.

EXPORTS.—The steamer Sierra Nevada sailed yesterday evening for San Francisco, via Victoria. Her cargo consisted of 100 hides; 400 quarter sacks of flour, 40 [illegible] oats; 100 packages of lard, butter, and [illegible]; 5,000 boxes of apples; 33 beef cattle, 30 sheep; 20 hogs and 3 horses. Wells Fargo & Co. shipped $30,000 in treasure.

THE SANITARIAN.—We have received the first number of the Sanitarian, published at Oregon City. It resembles the National Intelligencer, in some respects, but has neither "headrules," "column-rules," "dashes," or "italics," besides several other features quite original and not observable in other journals. On account of the lack of care in the proof reader there is some obscurity in some of the most startling passages. For instance, in speaking of the attack of the free negro organ of New York on H. W. Beecher, the Sanitarian indignantly remarks: "The "nigger" who made the above attack should hang on the same limb with his brother Jeff Davis."

KILLED.—George W. Derrickson, publisher of the Washoe Times, was shot through the heart on the 23d of January, by a man named Hayes, and died instantly. No particulars of the homicide are given. Mr. Derrickson was one of the founders of the Marysville Appeal.

RECRUITING.—H. C. Small, of Eugene City, has been appointed recruiting officer for the new companies of Oregon Cavalry. His field of operations is in Lane county, with his office at Eugene.

Vigilance Hook and Ladder Co., No. 1.—Regular monthly meeting this evening at 7 o'clock.

All the world over

whatever disease exists whether special to the soil and climate [illegible] contagious or non-contagious—epidemic or casual, acute or [illegible]—it is as necessary to restore the ELECTRO-GALVANIC equilibrium, especially in California, as it is to give food to the starving. This statement is based upon a series of facts extending through [illegible] years, and verified by hundreds of patients, so that no principle of science no rule of experience no result of any well known cause rests upon more sure and [illegible] foundations than those which underlie the world-wide reputation of Electricity for the cure of all nervous states of the body, faulty digestion, mental and physical debility, prostration, coughs, asthma, wandering pains of a rheumatic, gouty or mercurial character, and all forms of disease the result of scrofula or cachectic habit of body.

If you have ulcers which will not heal—pains that can not be removed—melancholy which you cannot shake off—[illegible] which you cannot regain—depression of spirits which weighs you down—wakefulness that knows no sleep [illegible] languishes for want of energy—a void which no society can fill—suspicion which no [illegible] an [illegible] Dr. Van Zandt, for his great success and the safety with which he administers his new method of electrical excitation together with his remedies, which are adapted to the requirements of climate and constitution, will assure you of a complete and radical removal of all bodily and mental infirmities, within the scope of science and man to remove.

The Eye and Ear Diseases.

It must not be forgotten by the eye and ear sufferers that Dr. Van Zandt has made these afflictions an especial study and that he is the only Surgeon in our State who has a diploma for that branch of practice. Very many of the eye and ear troubles are purely deranged nervous action, and are cured by his electro-galvanic battery—as amaurosis, squinting, cataract, floating specks before the vision, twitching of the eyelids, nervous deafness, roaring and buzzing noises in the ears, giddiness, etc. All operations successfully done on those delicate organs of sense.

PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases. If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully refunded by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains apply the Pain Panacea freely and take a dose of it internally morning noon and night. It will not only cure the pain but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhœa, or a relaxed state of the bowels take a dose of Pain Panacea, and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the part freely and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe the gum at the same time, it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe the parts affected morning and night, at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea, it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

Pruning Trees.

The season is now approaching when the attention of the farmer should be directed to his orchard. Now the pruning knife should be put to its use, and the [illegible] skill of the farmer should be exercised, in order that his trees may remain vigorous and healthy, and that their fruit may be fair and luscious. Below we give some hints in relation thereto, taken from that standard work, McMahon's American Gardener.

By a redundancy of wood the roots are exhausted unprofitably, the [illegible] wood is robbed of its sustenance, and the natural life of the tree unnecessarily shortened, while the superfluous wood endangers the tree by giving the winds an additional power over it, and is injurious to the bearing wood, by retaining the damps and preventing a due circulation of air.

The outer branches only are able to produce fruit properly; every inner and underling branch ought therefore to be removed. It is common to see fruit trees with two or three tiers of boughs pressing so hard upon one another, with their twigs so intricately interwoven, that a small bird can scarcely creep in among them. Trees thus neglected acquire, from want of due ventilation, a stunted habit, and the fruit becomes of a crude inferior quality.

The trees are very often almost entirely subdued by moss, which kills many, and injures others so much that they are only an incumbrance to the ground and a disgrace to the country. This evil may be checked by scraping and rubbing off the moss at this season of the year, with a rounded iron scraper, &c., when men have little else to employ them, and only seek work in idle, expensive, and unprofitable amusements. Draining the land, if too retentive of moisture, will sometimes prevent or cure moss, or digging around the trees on the approach of winter, or in spring, or bringing fresh mold, or the scouring of ponds and roads, or the rubbish of old walls, well prepared and pulverized, and laid around them. Whatever contributes to the health of the tree will cure, or in some degree mitigate, this and other diseases.

These considerations ought to induce to an examination of your standard apple, pear, plum and cherry trees, &c., and where found necessary, to thin their branches, scrape and rub off moss, cut off all dead or irregularly placed limbs and branches, and also any luxuriant unfruitful shoots, and such branches as appear to be in a decaying or cankery state, all of which must be cut off close to where they were produced or to some healthy leading branch or shoot, for the bark cannot grow over a stump, because there is no power to draw the sap that way, for which reason always cut rather a little within the wood.

Smooth the cut parts, and if the amputations are large, apply thereto a light covering of the medicated tar below mentioned, which is to be laid on with a painting brush; if under an inch in diameter, it is scarcely worth while to go to that trouble, for such, when well pruned, will heal freely.

Be particular to use a saw in taking off all the limbs and branches that are too large for the knife, and smooth the cut parts with either your pruning knife or a neat draw-knife, will answer better for large amputations.

The medicated tar is composed of half an ounce of corrosive sublimate, reduced to a fine powder, and then put into a three pint earthen pipkin, with about half a gill of gin, or other spirit, stirred well together, and the sublimate thus dissolved. The pipkin must then be filled by degrees with common tar, and constantly stirred till the mixture is intimately blended. This quantity will be sufficient for two hundred trees. Being of a very poisonous nature, it should not be suffered to lie carelessly about the house. The sublimate dissolves better when united with the same quantity of spirits of [illegible] ture being apt to run, consistency may be given it by mixing it either with pounded chalk or whiting.

The above composition will be found eminently useful, as no worm of any kind can live near its influence, and no evil whatever will arise to the trees from its poisonous quality; it yields to the growth of the bark, and affords a complete protection to the parts against the influence of the weather.

Keeping Orchards Cultivated.—The "Gardener's Monthly," an excellent journal, published in Philadelphia, Thomas Meehan, Editor, contained an article a few weeks since, the leading idea of which was "that orchards are more successful through a series of years laid down in grass and annually top-dressed, than when cultivated and cropped." The Country Gentleman and some other papers, dissent from the doctrine, and urge cultivation. The true course, it seems to us, lies between the two extremes. We have never known an orchard to flourish that was continually in grass, no matter what the other circumstances were. Perhaps excessive top dressing might make it thrifty,—we have never tried it,—but it would certainly greatly [illegible] for many growth of the grass. [illegible], will so force orchard land [illegible] them tender and liable years, and [illegible] produce such a surplus of [illegible] to prevent their fruiting.—N. E. Farmer.

San Francisco Fruit Market.

San Francisco, Jan [illegible]th 1863

Editor Oregon Farmer:—The steamer Sierra Nevada arrived here on the 1st inst., with about 6000 boxes apples. Most of them sold at prices ranging from [illegible] to 5c, generally about 2c less than by the previous steamer.

The sudden decline is owing to a combination of causes. 1st. The holidays being over, the demand is not so great. 2d. Weather rainy, and trade dull. 3d. The supply greater than for several seasons past. 4th. A still greater supply just behind, to arrive on sail vessels and the Pacific.

Respectfully yours,

We have just seen some counterfeit Confederate notes. They are decidedly more valuable than the genuine, for they are printed on better paper.

It is said that Gen. Price is not in good health. We suppose he is weak in the extreme.

One day the telegraph will tell us of two vast armies confronting each other at such close quarters as to be able to see the whites of each other's eyes, and yet the very next day it will coolly tell us that it had never dreamed of their being within twenty miles of each other. We don't suppose that the lightning itself can be charged with lying, but its managers lie like thunder.

It is said to be a common remark among the members of Congress that the great expenses of the war are not attended with adequate results. Very true, but let us see whether the great expenses of Congress will be attended with adequate results.

A Memphis paper says that our troops will oppress Gen. Price. The consequences may be disagreeable.

The Boston Post says that they do not know enough, or are too lazy, or too treacherous, or too something at Washington to furnish the necessary supplies to the army to enable it to advance. Washington appears to have been the seat of trouble, the cause of delay,—defeat—premature advance—conspiracy against commanders, and the devilish mischief which has cost hundreds of thousands of lives, hundreds of millions of dollars, without benefit, and brought the country to the verge of ruin. We do not stop to consider what have been the former party associations of individuals who may form a cabal for selfish purposes regardless of the public welfare—if guilty, they deserve to be exposed, scourged and cast out.
